

Vladimer (Valo) Imerlishvili

Vladimer (Valo) Imerlishvili was born in 1981, graduated from the Tbilisi State Academy of Arts, specializing in sculpture. Participated in numerous international exhibitions. He is the author of many projects implemented in Georgia and Eastern Europe. He works and lives in Tbilisi.

Main projects:

2017-2020 - Swing, project of the Georgian National Museum. Tbilisi, Georgia. Curator: Alexandra Gabunia

2018/2019 - Sculptural objects in the urban space / "Your house on Jikia street", Tbilisi, Georgia

2018 - "Cell 23", a memorial to the patriots shot in 1923 in Vake Park. Tbilisi Georgia

2017 - "Formation". Rustavi, Georgia

2016 - Sculpture of Irakli Charkviani (co-author R. Iremashvili) in Deda Ena Square, Tbilisi, Georgia

2015 - Waldorf School Gate, Tbilisi, Georgia

2013/2016 - Functional sculptures in Niqozi, Georgia

2009/2010 - Illuminated sculptures on Batumi Boulevard, Georgia

2007 - Sculpture of Shota Rustaveli in Kiev, Ukraine